

Good Governance

Develop fundamental leadership skills in this 'must-do' short workshop. Establish Accountability, Direction and Culture to drive profitability and success for your business.

• Learn • Apply • Change • Grow

➔ What will I learn?

- The four pillars of good governance
- The critical differences between the roles of a Shareholder, a Director and a Manager
- Why it's important to have a Shareholder Agreement
- How to differentiate the roles even if you are wearing all of the hats!
- The key ratios to shareholding that you need to know

➔ Content

- Set profitability expectations for your business as a Shareholder
- Create a strategy as a Director to deliver the Shareholder expectations
- Create meaningful dashboards and KPI's for your business to deliver the strategic plan at an operation level
- Using negotiating skills to manage staff for greater production and contributions

➔ Personal Development

Key skills that are developed during this course include:

- Your role as a Shareholder
- Your duties as a Director
- The role of Management
- Understanding why the word key is the keyword in KPI
- Understanding the importance of a Shareholder Agreement

➔ Who Should Attend

Owners and Directors of businesses who want to gain a better understanding of Governance. This course is aimed at those who have little or no understanding of the role of Governance in their business. If you believe you are a business owner this course is perfect for you, as that is the first myth this course deals with.